It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for the talented work of Dr. Irene (Ike) Vasquez and Dan Runyon.

Ike and Dan brought their creativity, imagination, and most of all their energy to a program of cultural diversity called Calling All Colors. This program is designed to bring together children from various social and ethnic backgrounds and to provide them with an opportunity to begin to learn about each other. This year the Calling All Colors program served 275 fifth grade and high school students.

Magical Rain Theaterworks spent many hours working with the "Calling All Colors" committee to perfect a program that would reach out and touch the lives of our students. Their limitless energy, creativity and enthusiasm became a reality due to their ability to focus on the needs of the children.

Dr. Vasquez and Dan Runyon provide a service that goes beyond performance. They give the community a sense of their passion to educate through storytelling, dance, drama and music. Therefore, I highly recommend Magical Rain Theaterworks to help make your dream to make a difference come true.

Sincerely,

Andrew Sawyer
Chair, Calling All Colors Committee
